

General Membership Requirements

1. Only requirement for a "General Membership in the IARFC" is an interest in participating and sharing the goals and benefits of the association and agreement to abide by IARFC Code of Ethics going forward.
2. Carries no designation.
3. Not available to RFCs or RFAs, i.e. this member status is not to be misconstrued as a cheaper or easier way of continuing membership for those members. (It is therefore, not available to an existing member who is dropping the designation due to licensing, ethics issue, lawsuit, regulatory complaint or failure to complete CE requirements).
4. Must fill out application form.
5. Annual dues and application fee may apply.
6. Small (8.5x11) certificate will be issued – see sample attached.
7. No CE Requirement.
8. Member benefits are included and available as for all other members. However, materials and supplies with RFC or RFA designation imprint are not available to General Members, since that would imply possession of the designation.
