

DUNTON

Loren E. Dunton Memorial Award

Honoring the Recipient

The Loren Dunton Memorial Award is made, in honor of the founder of the financial planning profession, Loren Dunton, to ea person who has made a substantial contribution to the financial services profession and/or the financial interests of the public.

Father of Financial Planning

Loren Dunton, generally regarded as the "Father of Financial Planning", organized financial professionals in the late sixties. In 1969 he convened a group of financial professionals in Chicago and founded an industry of outstanding service and commitment. From this event and from Dunton's leadership and interactivity with many persons now in the IARFC would come an educational institution, the College for Financial Planning and the personal financial planning curricula now taught on over one hundred campuses.

As the first editor of Financial Planning magazine Dunton helped to publicize an emerging profession, bringing various practitioners together for a common cause, sharing practice and marketing techniques and promoting ethical conduct. That respected magazine has continued contributing to the profession for thirty years. Two associations came initially from this effort, the International Association for Financial Planning and after the first class of Certified Financial Planners graduated in 1973, the Institute of Certified Financial Planners. These organizations have since merged to become the Financial Planning Association. Using Dunton's model, more than forty countries have formed similar organizations.

Dunton continued to promote the value of the financial consultant as a professional whose quest for knowledge should never cease. He authored seven books that have helped to shape the careers and services of financial consultants. Dunton's commitment to these principles was evidenced in the Institute for Consumer Financial Education that he nurtured for many years, and which earned a Presidential Citation for public service.

A Very "Noble" Calling

Having been a successful businessman, although never a financial consultant, his comments were from the heart.

He used his experience to frankly explain back then, what we recognize now, that...

Planning is not separate from the "sale" of insurance and investment products, but are different roots of the common tree.

Products are necessary elements in the implementation of the financial plan.

Salesmanship should be taught by the managers and trainers of the financial services industry.

The ethical sale of financial products and the delivery of competent advice is a very noble calling.

The Loren Dunton Memorial Award

Awarded annually to the person who has made substantial contribution to the financial services profession and who embodies Loren's mission to "help persons wisely save, spend, invest, insure and plan for the future."
